Philosophy of Teaching

All life is learning-
from the day we are born until the day we die.
It begins in the crib and ends only in the coffin.
When we stop learning we are "brain dead," regardless of other medical evidence to the contrary.
The quality of our life depends on the quality of our learning and the quality of learning depends in turn on the quality of teaching-
Of mother, father, siblings, family, friends, and teachers.
Life and experience are teachers.
Success and failure are teachers.
Love is the greatest teacher of all-
and hate and anger are the worst-
for they destroy quality of life.

Psalm 23

*The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

*He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.*
